Charles N. Lux, Well Known Local Resident, Dies

Proprietor of Electrical Shop Passes; Was Son of Pioneers

Antioch stores and business houses were closed from 1:30 to 3 o'clock this afternoon in tribute to the memory of Charles N. Lux, who passed away at Victory Memorial hospital in Waukegan Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mr. Lux, a member of one of Lake county's oldest families, had for the past 26 years been the proprietor of Lux electrical shop at 924 Main street. His death occurred following a week of illness, and was felt as a personal loss by the many friends and business acquaintances to whom his cheerful disposition and kindly ways had endeared him.

Funeral services were held at the Lux home at 890 Main street at 2 o'clock, with the Rev. W. C. Henslee, pastor of the Antioch Methodist church, officiating. Sequit lodge of the Masons was in charge of Masonic services. Burial was in Hillside cemetery.

Ray Webb, George Garland, Arthur Mapleshorpe, Arthur Boch, Otto Klass and William Anderson served as pallbearers.

Born at Wadsworth

Mr. Lux was born Nov. 29, 1878, at Wadsworth, Ill., the son of the late Charles Lux, Sr., who died in 1927, and Minna Selter Lux, who is still living.

He was a grandson of Nicholas Lux, who with his brother John and their families had come to Lake county around the year 1857 from Buffalo, N. Y. The pioneer brothers settled at what was later to be the site of Wadsworth. There were no railroads in the Wadsworth region at that time, and land in the town site of Wadsworth which was afterward purchased by the Milwaukee railroad included a part of the Lux homestead holdings.

Minna Selter Lux also came of pioneer stock. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Christian Selter, had moved to Grass Lake in 1869 from Chicago—just two years before the great Chicago fire in 1871.

When Charles, Jr., was about five years old, his parents moved with their family to the Dakota region.

After living there for a short time, they afterward settled in Nebraska.

Return from Nebraska

In 1901 they returned to Antioch, purchasing the Grice hotel (now known as the Ball hotel), and managing it for about four years.

Charles Lux, Jr., later entered the employ of the Chase Webb mercantile establishment. He became interested in electrical work, and in 1913 established the shop he continued to operate in the same location until the time of his death.

On Dec. 30, 1922, he became united in marriage with Miss Willa Fern Dunham, then in her third year of teaching at the Antioch Grade school.

The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Dunham, of Pittsville, Ill.

Besides his wife and his mother, Mr. Lux is survived by three sisters, Mrs. A. L. Overton (Ada), of Chicago; Mrs. Walter A. Taylor (Minnie) Waukegan; and Miss Pearl C. Lux of Chicago.

New CCC Camp to Be Opened Near Fox Lake

Work on the proposed Chain O' Lakes state park in western Lake county will be started by a new CCC camp of about 200 men which is to be opened near Fox Lake around Oct. 1, according to word received from Washington.

The camp is one of six new ones being opened in the state by the Civilian Conservation corps. Others will be at Manito, Mason county; Danville, Vermilion county; Mt. Vernon, Jefferson county; Salt Springs State park, Vermilion county, and Pere Marquette State park, Jersey county.

Camps will be re-established at Oregon, Ogle county, and Smoky Lagoons, Cook county. Several camps will also be discontinued.

There were 49 camps in the state during the summer.

About $7,500 will be spent monthly for members of the new camp, which will be operated under the direction of the National Parks service. This expenditure would go for camping supplies, food and amusements.

The cost of maintaining the camp has been set at $15,000. The Skokie Valley camp along the Des Plaines river is expected to be transferred to the Fox Lake area.

That Hour of Sleep Is Coming Back Again

"Blue Monday" will come one hour later for Antioch residents this week-end when the village goes back to standard time.

The official change will be made Sunday evening, Sept. 24, at midnight, but it is expected that many residents will follow the example of Chicago folks and set their clocks back Saturday night, so they can take that extra hour of sleep Sunday morning.

During the summer months Antioch observed daylight saving time, so that local clocks would be in harmony with the chronometers of the large numbers of Chicago visitors who frequent the lakes region for their vacations and during week-ends.

"Story of Constitution" Is Told for Civic Club

As their observance of "Constitution Day," which fell on Sunday, Sept. 17, at their meeting Monday evening in St. Ignatius' Guild hall members of the Antioch Civic club heard a talk on "The Story of the Constitution of the United States" given by Milton Kallis, Waukegan attorney.

About 25 members of the club were present for the talk and the 7 o'clock dinner which preceded it.

This was the group's first meeting of the season. The next will take place on Monday, Oct. 16.

Lyons Presented New Trailer for Campaign Tour

Once again a shiny white trailer will take to the highways of Illinois to further the candidacy of an aspirant for high state office. Richard J. Lyons, who met with such remarkable success in his recent trailer campaign as the Republican party's nominee for United States senator, has just been presented a modern streamlined trailer, as a headquarters for his governorship race, by the Lake county Republican organization.

The trailer, the last word in design and construction, is fully equipped with the most modern improvements. Measuring 26 feet in length, and of full road width, this model is four feet longer than the one used last year which caused so much excitement in Illinois' turbulent political picture.

Painted a bright white, it is covered with slogans in red and blue. A speaking platform with hand railings, which telescope in when not in use, is built on top.

The finest public address system available has been installed in the trailer and four horns will broadcast the speeches of the dynamic Libertyville candidate. This traveling headquarters will be independent of public utility power as it travels through the Prairie State, because its own electricity generating plant will provide it with current to operate the loudspeakers and floodlights.

A coupe will pull the trailer.

Lyons is planning to install a two-way short wave radio telephone system in the trailer and one in his permanent campaign headquarters, so that he can be in constant touch with developments in the campaign.

In accepting the trailer from William Marks, chairman of the Lake County Republican Central committee, Lyons said, "It is with deep gratitude that I accept this beautiful traveling headquarters. Believe me, I appreciate that it is the most modern thing on wheels. I thank you for your kind remarks about my being the pioneer in this mode of campaigning and I promise you that I'll blaze a trail throughout this great state that will make you proud of your candidate. I plan to devote all of my time from now until November 1940 to campaigning for the governorship. Every hamlet, and every city, will have an opportunity to hear the platform and principles I base my candidacy on. My street corner speeches in Chicago, in the 1938 campaign, have caused the leaders there to schedule me for a series of these addresses again for this coming primary."

Sheriff Warns Pre-Season
Hunters of Trespass Laws

Complaints from several large estates in Lake county that hunters have been trespassing on private property to shoot pheasants have brought a warning from Sheriff Thomas E. Kennedy.

Anyone caught shooting pheasants or other fowl out of season will be arrested, Kennedy stated.

In addition, he said, those shooting game on private property without permission will be charged with trespassing.

Medical Plan Given Support

Army-Navy Club Members
Endorse Dr. Berkowitz'
Recommendations

A plan for supplying medical and surgical care for persons in the middle and lower income class brackets, proposed by Dr. Joseph G. Berkowitz and now being laid before the 76th congress at Washington, has received the support of the members of the Army and Navy club in Chicago.

General A. J. Ryan of the club states in a letter to the Antioch News: "The plan is based on over nineteen years of successful practice in a low cost group medical care."

"Many of my brother officers and myself feel a great step forward for the comfort and happiness of our nation will have taken place when protective medical care is made available to all as it is now given to our soldiers and sailors."

This plan is not only self-supporting, but will give employment to thousands, spend millions each year for supplies, such as cotton, chemicals, instruments, et cetera, will pay taxes, be an asset to the community where it is built, and it will be a builder of self respect by removing the stigma of charity.

"It will not interfere with the doctor who now enjoys a private practice with the paying upper income group, rather it will place X-ray service, laboratories, et cetera, where they can be used by all men of the medical profession."

"I am very much in earnest regarding a good non-political national health movement as it is badly needed."

Advantages Named

In support of the plan, the following resume of its advantages is cited:

The plan deals with the establishing of medical centers in all parts of the United States to give medical care to specialists, X-rays and laboratories to all of the people of the nation.

Such care now can only be enjoyed by the few who can afford transportation and long stays to large centers and the high cost of this service.

Protective medicine is now a recognized fact. When such medical centers are made available to all our citizens, with physical check-ups, it will mean the saving in wages from loss of time due to avoidable sickness which would run into staggering figures. It will also mean a healthier and therefore happier nation.

The plan is self-supporting and will remove the stigma of charity from all.

Dr. Berkowitz has had over nineteen years of experience in this work, at times carrying on the fight alone. He originated the Public Health Institute in Chicago which has had over nineteen years of wonderful success, also the United Medical Service which gives this protection to all, which has proved it is a success in Chicago and can be a success all over the nation.

Plans which call for the outlay of hundreds of millions of dollars of tax money have been suggested. Plans for regimenting medicine under government control have been suggested.

No citizen wants to see politics in medicine. Our health is too important to allow it to become a political football. Nevertheless, all citizens do want to see the cost of medical care brought down to where it can be a comfort to the family of small income as well as to the men of large income.

The Berkowitz plan would give employment to thousands of doctors, nurses, technicians and lay employees. It would have a payroll of over seven million dollars per year. It would also furnish as much more employment in the factories where the supplies which must be used are made, such as cotton, bandages, chemicals, furniture, plumbing fixtures and in fact almost every line of manufacturing would be benefited.

The Berkowitz plan would pay taxes and be a large asset to each community where a medical center would be established.

Care of the whole family—father, mother and all the children, including operations, obstetrical cases, protective health check-ups, X-rays and laboratory work can be given for less than ten cents per day. It is being done to thousands of families now and it can be done for the whole country.

Public health now is a national issue. We all want the best plan that the people can afford. We do not want charity or politics in the care of our families.

Vacation Exposures

Extra - Curricular Interest at H. S. Is Held By Sports

A soft-ball tournament among the classes is the main attraction for the boys at Antioch High school during after-school play these days.

The Seniors are leading the league with four wins and no defeats. The Freshman team is next in the running and has been playing a fine game of ball. The "Frosh" have lost only one game so far, to the Seniors.

This week the soft-ball games will be brought to a close, according to Coach Reuben Childers.

Next week the class teams will turn their attention to "touch football." The rules for this game are the same as those for football with a few restrictions.

These include touching with both hands instead of tackling, no equipment for protection, no spike shoes, and no blocking, only the body check being used, with forward passing and running.

There are eight boys on a team and five boys must be on the line of scrimmage when the ball is passed, with three boys in the backfield.

All boys in the high school take part in this activity. Danger of injuries is cut to a minimum, due to the fact that the players may never leave their feet at any time.

The girls at the school are also busy with fall sports, such as archery, tennis and softball. Teams are being organized in the various groups.

A social time was enjoyed after the business period.

The association is planning a 1:00 o'clock dessert-luncheon and card party for Thursday afternoon, Sept. 28. The party will be held in Anderson's store on Route 59 at Petite Lake.

With the arrival of colder weather later on, the association plans to serve warm meals at the schoolhouse at noon.

Federal Agents Inspect Boats in Lakes Region

It is estimated that between 600 and 800 small boats in the lake district will be affected by the more rigid application of government orders for safety equipment.

During the past week, 14 federal agents have inspected more than 100 resorts and boat liveryies and have ordered that all craft equipped for use with motors and 14 feet or more in length must be equipped with safety devices. These include proper lighting facilities, signalling devices and life preservers. All craft in this classification must be registered with the government and must bear numbers on their prow.

The order conforms with a law which has been in force for several years, but of which many boat and livery owners were unaware. Two Fox Lake livery owners with more than 100 boats each were the hardest-hit.

The inspection was staged by attaches of the marine and navigation inspection bureau of the Department of Commerce. It was made in conjunction with an investigation into an accident in which Mrs. Louis Bridges of Fox Lake was injured when the boat in which she was riding was struck by an outboard motor driven by Dean Sanborn of Chicago.

Newspaper Advertising Foremost

Despite the appearance of other advertising media, the newspaper remains the most productive channel whereby industry can reach the buying public—and industry is fully aware of that fact.

A recent survey well illustrates the sustained popularity of newspapers among advertisers. The survey was made by four national associations serving chain stores, and covered 138 representative systems operating more than 33,000 stores, coast-to-coast, and having annual sales well in excess of $3,000,000,000.

During the typical year covered by the survey, these companies spent more than $55,000,000 for advertising, an average of $1,754 per store. Almost 58 per cent of the money was spent with newspapers. A little less than 10 per cent was spent on hand bills and similar printed matter, much of which was produced in local newspaper plants. Only 4.30 per cent was spent for radio, with the balance made up of expenditures on miscellaneous media.

Breaking the figures down, per cent of their advertising dollar with newspapers, grocery chains spent 56.53 per cent and general merchandise and variety chains spent 51.35 per cent.

That is a testimonial to the character of the American people. This is particularly true of the newspapers serving the smaller towns of the country, which are read from "cover to cover" by their subscribers—news, locals, advertisements and all.

Keep Your Head

Rarely in our history has it been so necessary for Americans to keep their heads as it is today.

The most ghastly of all tragedies has engulfed Europe. It is the burning hope of the vast majority of our people that we may escape the holocaust of the destruction. We have not forgotten the World War. It sowed the seeds for the years of social discontent and depression that followed. We have not forgotten that thousands of American lives and untold billions in American wealth and resources were sacrificed. Only history will eventually reveal what good, if any, came from that war.

The President has said that as long as it remains within his power, there shall be no "blackout of peace" in this nation. In that he echoes the minds and hearts of all of us. But the mere wish is not enough. Hysteria, passion, fanaticism, mistaken idealism—these things can be the producers of ruin and horror. American neutrality is dependent upon America keeping its head.

No one knows when the war will end, or who will be the "victor." But certainly there is justified fear that all that is best in Europe may be lost to that continent for many years after hostilities have stopped. War means that the arts of peace must be ruthlessly dropped in order that the arts of death and destruction may be advanced. The preservation of liberties which have been won through centuries, are threatened in a warring world.

Economy Imperative for National Defense

It is announced that the government plans immediate further steps in building up the national defense, in order to assure the territorial security of North America. The navy for instance, which is now at 85 per cent of blue-print strength, is to be brought to full strength, and a large number of old war vessels are to be recommissioned to act as patrol ships in American waters.

This means hundreds of millions for the taxpayers to pay. It is an expense which the bulk of the people think necessary and justified. And it will be up to the next Congress to decide whether the expenditure of public money will be confined to necessary functions of government, such as national defense, or wasted as we have seen it on tax-eating experiments.

Certainly there are innumerable cases where the cost of government can be cut—cases where the very efficiency of government would be improved by economy, such as taking the government out of competition with private business.

It is time to cut such uncalled for expenses, so that there may be money, without increased taxes, for national defense. More increases in our incredible debt or in our staggering tax load, are the greatest danger to national security and independence.

Facing Economic Ruin

Embroidered nations have settled down for a long war. None dares think of the result. Even if there is no social revolution as a result of this senseless massacre, all nations will be so completely ruined, economically and financially, that it will take them more than a generation to stage a comeback.

Money is now being spent lavishly by all concerned. The French and the British, who still operate with gold as the base of their financial structure, are spending huge amounts already. Up to today they were trying to purchase war materials in this country, and were not in a position to bargain. Whatever was asked of them, they paid. How long the warring countries will be able to stand the strain no one can answer.

When the first World War began in 1914, all nations involved had ample means. Great Britain and France had a tremendous war chest; Germany and Austria were well supplied with cash. At the end of the last World War every one of the participating nations were officially or unofficially bankrupt.

The military aspects of the situation appear to many far less serious than the social and economic consequences of this world calamity. There can be no quick military decision regardless of how speedily Hitler's troops can dominate Poland.

The French and the British, who are less well prepared for a military campaign than their foes, must see this fight to the end. They will take their time, will mortgage everything they have, sell if necessary anything of value, but will not let the Germans win the war if they can help it.

England announces she is prepared for a war of three years' duration.

However, there are some hopes it may be a relatively short war. Immensely significant factor is that this time none of the nations went to war willingly—they went grudgingly, with worried faces, to do what both Germans and Allies think is a necessary and distasteful job. That attitude doesn't create sentiment for prolonging the "glorious adventure."

LAKE VILLA

Obituary

Our village was saddened last Wednesday morning when news of the death of William Summermyer, station agent for the Soo line here, became known. He had worked all day Tuesday, though not feeling well, as he had been working unusually hard here following the recent railroad accident, besides doing things to beautiful the grounds of his home built last year, in which he took great pride. During the night he became quite ill and a physician was called, but was unable to give much relief and Mr. Summermyer passed away Wednesday morning. He was born Nov. 1, 1884, in Houston county, Minn., and spent his boyhood there. He attended college at Dixon, Ill., and met his wife there. They were married at the home of Mrs. Summermyer's aunt in Oklahoma in 1911, and spent the following years in doing railroad telegraph work in Wisconsin and Illinois. They came here following the death of J. M. Philippi and Mr. Summermyer made many friends at the depot by his courteous and understanding ways. Three brothers, Dr. Edward Summermyer of St. Paul, Minn., Henry Summermyer of South St. Paul, and Albert Summermyer of Albin, Iowa, besides one son, Clifton Summermyer of Sparta, Wis., and one daughter, Mrs. Roy Christensen of Plainfield, Wis., besides his widow, are left to mourn the loss of a loving brother, father and husband. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon at the Strang funeral home in Antioch, following which the cortege went by train to New Albin, Iowa, where other members of his family are buried, and where further services were held on Friday.

The last of the series of moving pictures in the park was given Saturday night to an appreciative audience. These pictures have been furnished by the business men.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miller entertained several relatives at their home last Sunday in honor of Mrs. Miller's birthday.

Bobby Riggs, left, of the U. S., and Adrian Quist, of Australia, shake hands after their singles tennis match at Haverford, Pa., which helped decide the Davis cup championship. History repeated itself, for just 25 years ago Australia won the cup, and the winners marched off to war. Miss College Girl Is Engaging Attention of Fashion Designers

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

IT'S no secret as to who has been chosen to play the part of leading lady on the stage of fashion during the early fall days—College Girl is her name. To this important personage all fashiondom is paying homage at the present moment. On every side you are reminded that the idea is motivating to cater to the whims and wardrobe needs of the girl who is going away to school.

The style program arranged for Miss College Girl and her younger schoolgirl sister fairly teems with excitement. For instance, there is the new bustle dress. The idea has taken the collegiate set by storm. The quaint bustle dresses that grandmothers galavanted in as girls in the '80s are actually proving inspiration for frocks that the modern girl will wear this fall.

The highpoints of these oldtime silhouettes are being revived such as waistlines of vanishing inches, slim corseted midriffs and wide back-swirling skirts interpreted in novel bustle treatments but modified so cleverly they are made thoroughly practical and wearable for this day and age. Then there is the new vogue that calls for a velvet or velveteen jacket worn with a gay plaided wool skirt or a contrasting or matched solid color as fancy dictates. The decided military air that the new fashions take on is also a big factor in the new mode and most outstanding of all is the importance attached to fine materials.

These and other significant style trends were revealed at their glamorous best in an advance fall fashion revue staged by the Style Creators of Chicago. The three models pictured were especially applauded by the audience of visiting merchants as fashions that are representative of what the up-to-date fashion-alert girl will be selecting for her going-away-to-school wardrobe.

The clever little date frock of shepherd check velveteen shown to the left in the group is sure to enjoy a gay campus career. Its cunning tunic bustleback and its full circular skirt gives it swank and distinction such as collegiate fashionables demand. Its red suede belt supplies a fetching dash of color. Approval for the new bustle-back dresses is assured for being interpreted in simple words, bustle-back is merely a way of saying "back fullness" achieved in ingenious ways that are conservative and wearable without being overdone.

The suit to the right is very style-revealing, stressing as it does the continued triumph in the mode of richly colorful striped woollens. The stripes, the plaids and the marvelous artistry with which designers combine them with monotonous related tone simply hold one spellbound. The gorgeous striped wool that fashions the costume suit keys to the smartest fall colors, harmonizing vibrant greens with luscious blackberry tones. The skirt is all-around pleated. The boxy jacket tops an emerald green velvet blouse closing with novel key-and-keyhole ornaments. An oversize quill tops the moss green sailor hat.

You may expect to see gay little velvet jackets dotted all over the college campus. The girl centered in the picture wears a snug black velveteen jacket quite military looking as so many of the newer fashions are, with a plaid pleated skirt that introduces an artful blend of grape, pink and yellow tones, climaxed with a sweater in warm yellow hues. Juniors, likewise college sophisticates, simply dote on the new plaids and stripes. A Scotch cap of black velvet with satin ribbon streamer, together with the plaid carries the message that fashions for young folks have gone very Scotch this season.

Unique Spanish Gun

A 100-pound shotgun, brought to Mexico by Hernan Cortez in 1523, has been placed on exhibit at the Centennial museum of the Texas college of mines, at El Paso. It is a muzzleloader with a bore of 35 millimeters, and it saw service in the Mexican war of Independence in 1810-12.

Cockatoo Watchdog

Mrs. L. D. Perrine's cockatoo which was brought to her home at McGregor, Iowa, from Australia 25 years ago as a fledgling, is as good as a watchdog. Let an intruder come near the house or a pedestrian pass on the road at a late hour and the cockatoo shrills a savage warning.

TRUTH about ADVERTISING

By CHARLES B. ROTH

A MAN NAMED CAXTON

YOU may not remember ever hearing the name of William Caxton, but it was his life which makes your life today comfortable. He it was who introduced printing into England. This was in 1476. The introduction of printing has made all progress possible.

It wasn't until 1638 that America had a printing press, this at Harvard university, but after that printing grew, and newspapers sprang up, and modern American life began.

The printing press is the forerunner of knowledge wherever it is introduced. The printed word, even to this day, has no rival as a quick means of disseminating vital facts and ideas.

The newspaper of today is one of the modern wonders of the world. It is the broadest, quickest, most flexible and most economical way of getting a message into the minds of the people.

Early in our national history, manufacturers and merchants sensed this power of the press. They began using it to carry their advertising facts and ideas into the homes.

These early advertisers were careful business men. The fact that the newspaper would complete the educational process for their goods wasn't enough. It also had to do the job at less cost than any other medium.

And they found, after many trials in different fields, that it did. It got their message to prospective buyers in a manner which was economical as well as effective.

Today this same condition is unchanged. Advertisers, using newspapers year in and year out, find it the most profitable way in which to tell their story to buyers.

The reason is simple. The newspaper is the great common denominator of modern life. It reaches practically every family. It has the confidence of its readers. It stands for everything which is right and good and modern.

The advertisements in your newspaper are as much a part of its vital importance as the editorial and the news columns.

As a matter of fact, most readers find it hard to tell what interests them most—the commercial news, which is called advertising and which touches their lives every day, or the general news, in news story, editorial and cartoon.

They're both valuable. This man named Caxton was one of the great benefactors of mankind. He lighted the lamp—and it is still burning bright, though centuries have fled since he lived.

No Rocket Trips

No thinking astronomer is contemplating trips to the moon or any other members of the solar system; or places any reliance on the modes of transport outlined in popular literature.

Airplane Resembles Car

Except for its wings, a plane developed by one of the big aircraft companies at Burbank, Calif., looks very much like a large automobile. It is powered by two in-line engines instead of the radial type usually used on planes. The craft is designed for private use and will sell for about $27,500.

Penguin Politeness

Penguins always greet a person with unusual politeness and ceremony, declares Collier's. Upon meeting a stranger the large Emperors approach with stately, welcoming bows, while the little Adelines immediately place a small pile of stones—as a gift—at his feet.

Turtle Teeth

Turtles have no teeth, but their jaws are often very sharp and the jaw muscles are extremely powerful. Some turtles have tooth-like ridges that remotely resemble teeth, but they are not true teeth. Yet, without teeth, some turtles can inflict painful bites.

War Death Penalty

During the World War, from April 6, 1917, to June 30, 1919, the death penalty was imposed by general courts-martial of the United States army on 35 men and these men were executed. In no case was a capital sentence imposed for a purely military offense carried into execution. Of the 35 men executed two were executed for murder, 19 for murder and mutiny, 11 for rape and three for rape and murder.

Atlantic Waves

Some of the highest waves ever encountered were in the Atlantic ocean. On December 22, 1922, the British steamship Majestic encountered a wave in the North Atlantic ocean whose height was estimated to be 80 feet. In the South Atlantic and South Pacific oceans storm waves have been reported that reach 50 feet in their fullest development. The Bay of Biscay is noteworthy for the height of its waves.

German Riviera

Don't let a Quiz fan catch you on this one: Where is the German Riviera? Travelers say it is at Honnet, not far from Bonn, on the Rhine. It has the best climate in Germany and enjoys spring two weeks earlier than elsewhere in the country.

Offers Solution For One Problem

For many women, the most trying coat length of recent inspiration is the rather popular just-below-the-waist length that nips in at the midriff and hugs the hips.

It is a good style for a slender woman with a streamlined figure and is being shown in any number of varieties, of which one of the most popular is a monotone wool jacket worn over a gay print dress. But the problem is not so simple for those who border on plumpness.

One suggestion is that the slightly swallow-tail version deals more kindly with the heavy woman.

Two-Skirt Outfit Real Money-Saver

A money-saver for the bride consists of a two-skirt suit of very sheer wool or crepe, designed with a suave fitted jacket. The street-length skirt can be worn with the jacket and printed crepe or organdy blouses to make a smart runabout costume by day.

A floor-length skirt of the same material, combined with the jacket and a sheer chiffon blouse make a chic dinner costume for boat and hotel wear in the evening.

New Coat Silhouettes

Coats are no longer a simple matter of straight boxy lines or fitted and flared effects, for Parisian designers are showing intricate details of cut and design in their most recent collections.

High Color Tweed

Here is a smart version of the costume suit that combines plaid woolen with gay tweed. The fitted jacket is of yellow and black tweed in a diagonal weave. Yellow and gold tones are held in high favor according to what is showing in advance Paris collections. The costume includes a jacket, swagger coat and skirt. This idea of both jacket and topcoat done in matching color scheme is very practical. The saucer-brim hat is of black felt.

The ceremony was described in the Antioch News of the following day as one of "pomp and splendor," with the church decorated in woodbine and cut flowers and the bride "attired in a handsome gown of white liberty satin and carrying a large shower bouquet of bride's roses, her long tulle veil being caught with sprays of orange blossoms," while her attendants wore pale pink satin and carried roses and gadioli.

It is expected that many who attended the earlier ceremony will be present to extend to Mr. and Mrs. Juhnke their anniversary congratulations, and to lend additional warmth to the "best wishes" for the Juhnkes' daughter and her bridegroom.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Matter" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 17.

The Golden Text was, "My flesh and my heart faileth; but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion forever" (Psalms 73:26).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof; but he that doeth the will of God abideth ever" (1 John 2:15-17).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "So-called material existence affords no evidence of spiritual existence and immortality. . . . Matter is not the vestibule of Spirit. Jesus reasoned on this subject practically. . . . Understanding the nothingness of material things, he spoke of flesh and Spirit as the two opposites, as error and Truth, not contributing in any way to each other's happiness and existence. Jesus knew, 'It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing'" (p. 356).

County 4-H Girls Turn Minds to Winter Projects

Now that summer 4-H activities are completed, Lake county 4-H members interest turns to winter projects which are planned primarily to hold groups together during the winter months.

The winter projects include the following: Leisure Hour, Party-A-Month, and Informal Dress.

The Informal Dress unit is planned to give the older girl an opportunity to make her dress for early spring school functions as a part of her 4-H club work.

The Party-A-Month project gives suggestions for parties for each month which can be easily carried out by club members. This gives the girls training in leading group games, acting as hostess, serving, decorating, and party planning in general.

In the Leisure Hour project the members become skilled in the many forms of handicraft such as embroidery, woodwork, decorating Christmas cards, and candy making.

In 1938, there were 1,094 girls enrolled in Leisure Hour and 646 enrolled in Party-A-Month.

Any group of five girls between the ages of ten and twenty with an adult leader may organize a club. Persons wishing further information may contact Mrs. Helen Johnson Volk at the Home Bureau office, Grayslake.

T. B. Association Sends Representative to Meet

The chest clinics held by the Lake County Tuberculosis association have been suspended for Wednesday and Friday, Sept. 20 and 22, as Miss Orpha White, nurse of the association, will be attending the 26th annual meeting of the Mississippi Valley conference in Omaha, Sept. 20-22. It is hoped that much valuable information applicable to the work in Lake county will be gleaned from the conference, Miss White announces.

Vacations in the office are over and work is being pursued in compiling the mailing list for the Christmas Seal Sale for 1939. A meeting of the Executive committee of the association was held in the office Wednesday evening, Sept. 13. In addition to the regular business, plans were discussed relative to the success of the Christmas Seal sale. Edward L. Baker, Lake Forest, was again chosen as chairman of the Christmas Seal sale committee. The other members will be announced later.

Antioch-Bristol Bahais Plan Weekly Meetings

The first in a series of weekly meetings planned by the Antioch-Bristol Bahai group was held last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Matthisen in Bristol township. The subject for discussion was "The Search for Truth."

The meetings will be held each Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock. The subject for last week was "The Search for Truth." During the fall and winter months many other subjects of interest will be discussed at these forum meetings, such as "The Symbolology for the Baha'i Temple," "What is the Baha'i Faith," "Healing," "Immortality," "The Power of Prayer," "The Goal of a New World Order," "The Wisdom of Tests" and other equally interesting subjects.

To get to the Mattiesen home from Antioch, the following directions have been given by the sponsors of the talks: Take North avenue or the State Line road, east to the first cross road which is the Deep Lake road, turn left on "Q" and it is the first house on the right side of road—better known as the old Coyne farm.

No Restrictions Placed On Tourists by Canada

No restrictions of any kind have been imposed, or are likely to be imposed, on tourists from the United States into Canada, Bert Vanderwarf, head of the Chicago Motor club touring bureau, announced today in response to a flood of calls from prospective Canada-bound motorists.

This information came to the motor club from the offices of the immigration branch of the department of mines and resources.

"In other words, tourist traffic may flow freely across the border between the United States and Canada despite the conditions which have been brought about as a result of war in Europe," Mr. Vanderwarf said.

He cited an official statement issued by F. C. Blair, director of immigration, on the situation affecting tourist travel between the United States and Canada, which reads:

"Inquiries reaching the immigration branch of the department of mines and resources, indicate that some alarm is felt amongst American tourists now visiting Canada or intending to visit Canada, that they may be subject to restrictions in entering or leaving. There are absolutely no grounds for these fears. Tourists continue to be welcome and no restrictions of any kind have been imposed or are likely to be imposed on such visitors. American tourists are not required to secure any Canadian document either for entering or leaving this country. In the event of war, citizens of enemy countries would be subject to restrictions but these will not affect in the slightest the movement of tourists from friendly or neutral countries, who will continue to be welcomed as they have been in the past."

Local Future Farmers and Chapter Adviser Attend State School

President Francis Swenson, and Secretary Richard Hartnell of Antioch chapter, Future Farmers of America, are attending the state officers' training school in session Friday and Saturday at the Junior building on the State Fair grounds at Springfield, Ill. The local boys are accompanied by C. L. Kutil, agriculture instructor of Antioch High school, who has been appointed to represent this section of the state to act as official instructor at the school.

A pilgrimage to Abraham Lincoln's tomb and a visit to his Springfield home will be one of the side features of the two days at the capitol city.

NATIONAL ACCOUNTING WINNER

Wilbert Stevenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Stevenson, whose farm is near Streator, Ill., has been announced the national winner of the 4-H Club Farm Accounting Contest. The award was presented to him at the Illinois State Fair in Springfield.

Supervision of the contest in Illinois was under the boys' 4-H Club staff of the Agricultural Extension Service, College of Agriculture, University of Illinois, with Professor E. L. Pilchard in charge. Young Stevenson is a student in the College of Agriculture at the University.

This photograph shows him busy with his accounts at home. The annual contest, in which many thousands of farm boys and girls all over the nation participate, is sponsored and the awards are given by the International Harvester Company.

BAHAI TEMPLE ATTRACTS MANY VISITORS

An object of interest to many admiring visitors, not only members of the Antioch-Bristol Bahai group, but also others who are intrigued by its unusual architecture, is the beautiful Bahai temple at Linden avenue and Sheridan road, Wilmette. Public meetings are held there each Sunday at 3:30 p. m.

Amber in Fashion

Featured colors this season include a series that ranges from lightest beige and cinnamon tones to vibrant copper tones, with special emphasis on browns from light to dark. Paris plays up these colors both in fabrics and in furs, and then to carry out the color scheme in perfect harmony adds amber jewelry. The revival of amber will prove welcome news to women who dress with distinction. Note the attractive bracelet, necklace and clip of amber as worn by the fashion-wise young woman pictured.

Satin-Top Jacket Dress for Autumn

For a neat practical dress of accredited style, a dress that will serve admirably for immediate wear, and that will start the season off in the right direction, choose one of the very smart daytime jacket dresses, preferably of black, either silk crepe or lightweight wool. These are shown with either the separate black satin blouse or the satin is worked into the dress itself in a blouse top. With this comes a cunning bolero of the identical material that fashions the dress. Sometimes there is an applique of the satin on the bolero. The advantage of the separate satin blouse and skirt is that it gives opportunity for interchangeable blouses.

The combining of satin with other materials is significant fashion news. Topcoats as well as dresses are trimmed with satin this year.

Sweater Collars In Great Variety

Bengaline and faille are fall favorites for neckwear. There is a little satin and there are taffeta ruffled collars and full three-quarter Bishop sleeves with wrist frills that are to put on over a sleeve or with short sleeves to give a new juvenile look to a plain dress.

There are deep cuffs with double rows of box-plaited ruffling, deep Dutch collars with the same finish. Bibs are still shown and sweater collars are imperative both for the school girl and the older woman. This fashion gives a clean, fresh, laundered look to our woolly outer knits that make them seem feminine and less casual.

FARM TOPICS

BUSINESS RECOVERY VITAL TO FARMERS

Employment Revival Would Aid Agriculture.

By DR. O. B. JESNESS
Solution of a considerable part of the farm problem must be looked for in industry rather than on the farm. Colorado State college is giving serious consideration to the interlocking of these two major American enterprises.

Industrial and employment recovery concern the farmer because increased purchasing power among consumers means improved demand for farm products. Such recovery also will aid agricultural adjustment in that more opportunities for work will be provided for the excess farm population.

Unsatisfactory prices and income for farmers have led to programs seeking to raise prices by holding production or supplies offered on the market in check. There is not an adequate market to absorb at satisfactory prices all of the products farmers produce.

Agriculture is carried on by such a vast number of individuals that adjustment of production to a depressed market does not come readily. It presents a decided contrast to manufacturing in this respect. The fact that agriculture cannot readily adjust production has paved the way for government adjustment programs.

To the extent the troubles of agriculture are the results of surplus output, the remedy must be either market recovery and expansion, or actual curtailment of the industry. Markets have been curtailed by the depression.

For the future, land prices need to be kept in line with prospects for long-time returns.

There are problems of soil conservation and land use calling for public attention. However, soil conservation needs to be treated as a problem of itself rather than to be used as the vehicle for benefit payments to increase the agricultural income. In the future, greater recognition probably will be given to the fact that the individual operator has responsibilities in the matter of caring for the soil and other resources.

In a democracy, public policy is shaped by public opinion. This requires that the average citizens must think seriously about our problems and arrive at sound judgments. That thinking must recognize broader considerations of general welfare rather than to spring only from narrow self-interest.

Music Fan Radioizes

Entire Vermont Farm

Music while he works. That's the pet hobby of H. O. Van Vliet, a farmer of East Charlotte, Vt., on whose large farm one may hear philharmonic orchestras and concert ensembles from early morning until late at night.

The magazine Radio News tells the story as follows:

"Van Vliet has installed radio speakers in practically every building on the farm, all of which are controlled from a master speaker set in his house.

"It all started because Van Vliet, a busy and industrious farmer, is ardently fond of classical music. But because he had cows to milk, fields to plow, wood to chop and other barn labors to perform, he missed many of his favorite programs.

"So he set about remedying that situation. He bought several old speakers for a couple of dollars each. Using extension cord, he set up a speaker in the woodshed, another in the cow barn, one in the chicken house and still another in the large horse barn. To these he added three in his house; one in the bedroom, a large cabinet speaker in the living-room and another in his kitchen. The entire layout didn't cost over $12.

"He still has one problem unsolved: he can't find a station broadcasting classical music at five a. m., the hour when he hitches his suspenders and starts out for the barn to milk the cows. The radio minded farmer complains that he has to spend an hour or two in the barn the first thing in the morning and all I can get on that consarn radio is jazz music from Boston."

"Asked if music helps the chickens to lay more eggs and his cows to give more milk, Van Vliet replied, 'I know definitely that animals like music. When I turn on some soft, pleasing music out in the farm buildings, the hens and cows respond to it immediately.'

Proper Sire Care

It is important to success in dairying to secure an outstanding bull of the desired breed—one which is capable of improving the herd—and give him care and management so that his services may be utilized to the best advantage, points out N. P. Ralston of the Missouri college of agriculture. Oftentimes the true value of many bulls is not determined because they are sold before production records are obtained from the daughters.

Unlimited Visibility

THERE are perhaps few reports more welcome to an aviator than that of "unlimited visibility," with its assurance of a clear atmosphere, unobstructed ceiling, smooth passage. Not alone to an aviator but to others also, is the phrase significant, hinting something deeper than the mere technical implications. For instance, in whatever walk of life one may find himself, what peace and joy would come from an assurance of definite, continuous progress with no obstructions or reversals!

Such assurance is by no means impossible of achievement. If one were to depend simply upon mortal theories and panaceas for guidance and inspiration, he might sometimes enjoy temporary success, but ultimately he would experience disappointment and frustration. Yet in turning to the truth, founded on the Scriptures, he would have the sure basis for his hope, and realize progress and well-being, throughout religious history, the consciousness of unlimited good has been the experience of many devout and spiritually-minded men and women. Christ Jesus possessed, in the highest degree, true spiritual vision, which enabled him to overrule every untoward condition presented to him.

John, in the bleak setting of Patmos, was so imbued with spiritual light that he received a glorious vision of "a new heaven and a new earth" (Revelation 21:1).

The term "visible" is defined, in part, as "perceivable by the eye," and also as "mentally perceptible." When one grasps in some measure the great facts of spiritual being which are not cognized by physical sight, the possibilities of spiritual vision are seen to be unlimited and unimpeded by material, finite conditions and would be obstructions. In the words of Paul (II Corinthians 4:18), one learns to "look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal." These eternal verities, discernible to spiritual sense, include illimitable goodness, affluence, and harmony.

Spiritual man is fetterless, unfallen, reflecting infinite Mind, God, his origin. Man's possibilities for expressing good and blessedness are therefore as unrestricted and inexhaustible as his source. In human experience, the arguments that would make for mistiness or obscurity—fear, doubt, discouragement, ignorance, worldliness, sin—are the outcome of the belief that man has a mortal existence separate from God. But Christian Science reveals man as the individual expression of divine Mind, incapable of knowing aught but perfection, since Mind is perfect. All attributes of God, including discernment, wisdom, and ability, are expressed by man.

Freedom from a false sense of responsibility and the depressing fear of failure are won as one realizes man's eternal oneness with his heavenly Father. What serenely comes from the recognition that man, as God's idea or reflection, is dependent only on Mind for all capability and sagacity, and that this reflection is immutable, eternal, and irreversible! Likewise, to man, the flawless manifestation of Life, superstitious beliefs regarding sickness, age, accidents, are unknown. However aggressive, terrifying, or stubborn the appearance of discord may seem to material sense, spiritual harmony alone is supreme and real. Apprehending this fact importantly and consistently, one can triumph over false beliefs and prove his God-given dominion.

"God's gifts put man's best dreams to shame," a well-loved poet once wrote, as perhaps a gentle, though forceful rebuke to the human tendency to outline what one might consider best and most desirable for his welfare. In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 591) Mrs. Eddy defines Mind, in part, as "Deity, which outlines but is not outlined."

Love has established all good, and maintains his idea, man, in harmony, completeness, perfection, and joy. This truth, understood and applied, acts as law in one's human experience, supplying whatever the need may be—harmonious relationships, home, food, clothing, employment.

Progress, in its highest sense, means working with God, and is evidenced in one's intent and conduct rather than in merely material enrichment. But right reward necessarily follows righteous endeavor, and is inseparable from it. In these inspiring words Mrs. Eddy has assured us of ever-present divine help (Miscellaneous Writings, p. 113): "Divine Love is our hope, strength, and shield. We have nothing to fear when Love is at the helm of thought, but everything to enjoy on earth and in heaven."—The Christian Science Monitor.

Elusive Deer
Houdini had nothing on the deer being studied by scientists at the American Wildlife Institute at the co-operative wildlife research, demonstration and management unit at the Alabama Polytechnic Institute. A one-strand electric fence was placed around a field containing cotton, corn, peanuts, peas and potatoes, in an attempt to protect the crops from deer. The deer just crawled under the wire, although it was only about 24 inches from the ground!

Flowers of Venice
Someone should write and illustrate a book on the gardens of Venice. Not only are balconies covered with vines rooted in the soul of the famous canal city, but the roots of the trees go down into the soil soaked with the briny Adriatic. Palaces and tenements have window boxes fragrant with the beauty that makes the city a flower show.

DON'T THESE LOOK AWFUL GOOD?

My Favorite Recipes

Lucky, indeed, is the homemaker who has among her treasured recipes Aunt Martha's "receipt" for soft molasses cookies, Mother's rule for old-fashioned apple pan dowdy, or grandmother's instructions for making home-baked beans. Those old, favorite recipes are the mainstay of many a tempting meal.

Each one of us has our own prized collection of just such recipes—some old, some new, but all of them tried and approved by a critical family. The recipes I'm giving you today are some of my own favorites—family "heirlooms" and contributions from friends and neighbors who are excellent cooks.

When you're a "seasoned" or experienced cook you may take liberties with a recipe or with directions, but if you're a beginner, or if you're trying a new dish for the first time, it's better to stick to a proven recipe and the accurate measurements it calls for.

Accuracy in cooking means level teaspoons and tablespoons and cups in the amounts the recipe specifies; it means sifting flour once before measuring; combining ingredients by the method given, and cooking or baking according to time and temperature recommended.

Oven Fried Chicken.

(Serves 4)
1 2 to 3 pound chicken (cut for frying)
1 cup flour
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
2 eggs
1/4 cup water
1 cup fine cracker crumbs
Fat for frying
1 onion (chopped fine)
1 cup cream

Dip pieces of chicken in flour to which salt and pepper has been added; then dip in beaten egg to which water has been added and finally roll in cracker crumbs. Brown in hot fat (1 inch in depth). Place in baking pan, sprinkle with onion, and top with cream. Cover and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees), until tender, approximately 1 1/2 hours.

Surprise Muffins.

(Makes 2 dozen small muffins)
1 egg (well beaten)
1 cup milk
2 tablespoons butter (melted)
2 cups cake flour
3 tablespoons sugar
3 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
4 tablespoons cherry preserves
Beat egg and add milk and melted butter. Mix and sift the flour, sugar, baking powder and salt. Pour liquid ingredients into the dry ingredients. Pour into well-greased muffin tins and place 1/2 teaspoon of preserves on top of each muffin. The preserves should be partially covered with muffin batter. Bake in a hot oven (400 degrees) for approximately 12 minutes.

Vanilla Ice Cream.

(Automatic Refrigerator Method)
1/2 cup sweetened condensed milk
1/2 cup water
1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla
1 cup whipping cream
Blend sweetened condensed milk, water, and vanilla thoroughly. Chill. Whip cream to custard-like consistency and fold into chilled mixture. Pour into freezing pan. Place in freezing unit. After mixture is about half frozen remove from refrigerator. Scrape mixture from sides and bottom of pan. Beat until smooth but not until melted. Smooth out and replace in freezing unit until frozen for serving. Serves 6.

A Chocolate Sauce for Ice Cream.

2 squares unsweetened chocolate
2 tablespoons butter
1/2 cup boiling water
5 tablespoons white corn syrup
2 cups sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 teaspoon salt
Melt chocolate and butter and add hot water gradually. Bring to a boil, add corn syrup and sugar, and cook over low flame for 5 minutes. Cool slightly, add vanilla and salt.

Gingerbread Waffles.

(Serves 6)
1 cup molasses
1/2 cup butter
1 teaspoon soda
1/2 cup sour milk
1 egg (beaten)
2 cups cake flour
2 teaspoons ginger
1/2 teaspoon salt
Heat molasses and butter to boiling point. Remove from fire and beat in the soda. Add sour milk, beaten egg, and the flour which has been sifted with the ginger and salt. Mix well. Bake in hot waffle iron. Serve with whipped cream and a dash of nutmeg.

Honey Spice Cake.

1/2 cup shortening
1/2 cup granulated sugar
1/2 cup strained honey
2 eggs
3 cups cake flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 teaspoons cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon cloves
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 cup nut meats (broken)
1 cup buttermilk
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
Cream shortening. Add sugar and beat thoroughly. Add honey. Separate eggs, beat yolks and add to mixture. Mix and sift all dry ingredients. Add 1/4 cup of dry ingredients to nuts and add to cake mixture. Add remaining dry ingredients alternately with buttermilk and vanilla, beating between each addition. Beat egg whites until stiff. Fold into mixture. Place in well-greased loaf pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) for 45-50 minutes.

Clam Chowder.

1/2 cup carrot (chopped)
2 tablespoons onions (chopped)
1 1/4 cups potato (chopped)
1/4 cup celery (chopped fine)
1 pint clams
2 cups water and clam liquor
Salt and pepper to taste
1 pint milk
3 tablespoons flour
3 tablespoons butter
1 1/2 tablespoons parsley
1/2 teaspoon paprika
Chop the vegetables in small pieces and place in large kettle. Chop the clams and add together with the clam liquor, water, salt, and pepper. Cover and cook about 1/2 hour, or until vegetables are tender. Scald milk. Make a smooth paste of the flour and water. Add half of this flour paste to the clam mixture and half to the scalded milk. Cook each, stirring constantly, until the mixtures thicken. Combine and add butter, parsley, and paprika. Serve very hot.

Whipped Cream Fluff.

(Serves 5)
1 cup rice (cooked)
1/2 cup shredded pineapple
1/2 cup canned red cherries
1 dozen marshmallows (cut in pieces)
1/4 cup sugar
1/2 cup whipping cream
Chill rice thoroughly. Then add fruit and marshmallows, and sprinkle lightly with sugar. Just before serving, fold in whipped cream. Serve in sherbet glasses.

New Autumn Tints Are Picturesque

Forest Greens and Woodsy Browns in Favor.

By CHERIE NICHOLAS
Fashion is undoubtedly in a high mood for adventure so far as the new fall and winter colors are concerned. Not only do the rich beautiful forest greens, Robin Hood reds, woodsy browns and sunbright copper shades now so fashionable, radiate autumn splendor throughout the mode, but into the story of fashion they are weaving an element of romance and the picturesque that is bubbling over with exciting news which bears fascinating promise for the coming months.

With the deep forest greens and the woodland browns that abound in the new woolen weaves or with the smart black daytime frock a dash and a splash of Robin Hood red is proving too thrilling for words. One of the startling ideas that is taking the world of fashion by storm is that which calls for a bright red jacket to top the black dress, or let your gown be in the new bronzy green if you prefer.

A scarlet hat is another way of making a victorious approach to smart style for fall. A vivid Robin Red quill thrust at a devastating angle through your deep forest green suede or felt hat is another way of saying "it" with unmistakable style accent. And a gay red suede bag for a crescendo style note.

Then there are the new copper shades and the cinnamon tones, which Paris designers are sponsoring so enthusiastically—with them wear amber jewelry and you will have arrived at yet another pinnacle of fashion.

For strictly high style substitute for the much lauded black one of the very new near-blacks, listed among which are black sapphire, black ruby, and certain blackberry tones which when highlighted with bright dahlia red accessories is most lovely.

Watch color! for a color pageantry is in promise for the coming months that will prove of surpassing beauty and interest.

Millinery News

Decidedly new-looking are the coachman-type felts that are being shown in the early millinery displays. They are really very flattering to wear in spite of their severely tailored lines. The cocky little coachman's hat pictured below in this group is a gray felt with a black satin ribbon trim. The trend to elegance this season is reflected in ostrich-trimmed hats that call to mind the fashions of many years ago. The model at the top in the picture is made of velvet with graceful ostrich trim. The stunning high-crowned chapeau of black felt shown in the center is satin-trimmed. A narrow black veiling covers the fashionable visor brim.

TRUTH about ADVERTISING

By CHARLES B. ROTH

'PLEASE PASS THE CUSTOMERS'

THERE'S one muscle in the human anatomy which was named by a humorist with boarding-house experience. It is called the "boarding-house muscle" because it is the muscle which enables you to extend your arm—and reach.

It took its name, of course, from the dining-tables of boarding-houses, where to reach far was to get more to eat at a table where everybody was so engrossed in his plate he didn't have the time or the inclination to pass anything to anyone else. Reach won.

In business it is reach also that wins. One of the chief values of advertising to the advertiser is that it gives him a reach for customers. Every business must both reach customers and reach for them if it is to exist.

The business man whose reach is longest or most skilled is the man who brings the most customers into his store. And those who reach the best have the best stores and can give the best values.

The chief concern of every business is its customers. Who are they? Where do they live? Why should they trade with me? How can

Charles Roth

I tell them of the advantages of my business? Every business man asks these questions. Every successful business man answers them.

In the reach for customers, it isn't a muscle which does the trick. It is advertising.

A man starts a store. Somewhere are men and women who should buy from him. He is sincere in his desire to serve. But unless he does something about it, his store will fail before enough customers find their way to his doors.

He has to reach out for them. He begins to advertise where customers will see—in the newspaper. One reads. He is convinced. He goes to the store. He is well-treated. He buys. He likes what he bought. He returns to buy again.

Gradually, as more advertising appears, more customers come, buy, return to buy again. The reach for customers is building a great business.

But don't you see that the business man is not the only one who has benefited in the process?

Every customer who found there a better place to buy, a place where he could get a little bit better merchandise and a little bit better service at a little bit better price, also benefited.

The customer benefits as much from advertising as the business man, if not more.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

ISAIAH: FORETELLING THE BIRTH OF THE MESSIANIC KING

LESSON TEXT—Isaiah 7:14; 9:1-7; 11:1-5.
GOLDEN TEXT—His name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace.—Isaiah 9:6.

Christ is coming! Christ has come! Christ is coming again! All three of these great truths are declared by Holy Scripture. In our lesson for today we study the prophecy of His birth which was given by Isaiah about 750 years before the event took place, and with it we find many beautiful details concerning His blessed character and accomplishments. It is entirely appropriate that the lesson for today should be taken from the Old Testament and relate to the prophecy of the coming of the Messianic King, thus binding together the Old and the New Testaments. Isaiah's prophecy prepares us to study His life in the Gospel of Matthew, beginning next week.

I. The Coming of the King (7:14; 9:1-8).

To us it is entirely understandable that the Son of God was to become flesh and dwell among us and that all the grace and power of God should be upon Him, for we know that He did come in perfect fulfillment of the Scriptures. But let us not fail to note the marvel of this revelation made centuries in advance through God's prophet.

1. Born of a Virgin (7:14; 9:8).

He was to be born. Christ did not come as a fully matured divine being after the fashion of the so-called gods of mythology, but He entered our needy world as the Babe of Bethlehem's manger. What infinite condescension!

He was to be born of a virgin, and so He was. There are those who would minimize the importance of this, or try to explain it away by interpreting the word "virgin" to mean a young married woman. The late Robert Dick Wilson, an outstanding authority, says, "The great and only difficulty lies in disbelief in predictive prophecy and in the almighty power of God, or in the desire to throw discredit on the divine Sonship."

2. God with Us (7:14).

"Immanuel" means "God with us." Isaiah had a foregleam of the incarnation which brought the eternal Son of God into that God-man relationship which was absolutely indispensable if there was to be redemption. Sin had made a barrier between God and man which man could not pass, and only as the God-man, Christ Jesus, came through that barrier to be "God with us" could there be any hope of our salvation.

3. A Great Light (9:2).

The Messiah was to break through the dense darkness of sin and sorrow to bring light and joy. How gloriously that prophecy has been fulfilled!

II. The Character of the King (9:6; 7; 11:1-5).

The prophet foretold not only the meaningful names of the coming Messiah, but pictured in glowing beauty the mighty things which He was to accomplish.

1. Revealed by His Names (9:6).

"Wonderful"—that word has been so misused that it means comparatively little to us. It really fulfills its true meaning in Christ. He is unique, remarkable, yes, truly wonderful. "Counsellor"—in every detail of life, great or small, an infallible guide. "Mighty God"—not just like God, or representing God; Christ is God. "Everlasting Father"—the tender and loving, unfailing One to whom time does not bring any change, for He is the "Father of eternity." "Prince of Peace"—He is not yet the ruler of the nations of the world, hence we hear not only of wars but of rumors of wars. Mark it well that there will be no enduring peace until He comes to reign whose right it is to reign, the divine Prince of Peace.

2. Revealed by His Deeds (9:7; 11:1-5).

Eternal justice and righteousness, peace, wisdom, understanding, counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of God, unfailing equity—all these glorious accomplishments are to characterize the Messiah according to Isaiah's prophecy.

Has the prophecy been fulfilled? We know that all of these qualities were in Christ when He came to earth the first time, but the complete fulfillment of this prophecy awaits that day toward which the child of God looks with joy and hope when Christ shall come again. As we study this portion of our lesson, our hearts should cry out with John, "Even so, come, Lord Jesus" (Rev. 22:20).

To Gain Truth

Truth is never learned in any department of industry by arguing, but by working and observing; and when you have got hold of one truth for certain, 10 others will grow out of it. The assertion of truth is to be always gentle.—Ruskin.

Flea Insurance High

When Alfred Haydn, a professional "flea-tamer," tried to insure his troupe of 30 performing fleas, he was told the premium would be $100 a day on every $500 worth of fleas. The difficulty, Haydn said, apparently lies in the fact fleas have no one who can tell the age of a flea with certainty, and it is also difficult for a layman to distinguish between individual star flea performers.

Beans as Poultry Feed

Beans are not usually looked upon as poultry feed, but cull beans are sometimes fed. It is best to cook the beans and feed them as part of a wet mash, similar to the way potatoes are fed.

The Observer

Miss Mabel Sayles, our esteemed linotypist and purveyor of jokes for all occasions, kindly submits for our corny bon mots department the following:

Q—"Why is a sheet of ruled paper like a lazy dog?"

A—"A sheet of ruled paper is an ink-lined plane. An inclined plane is a slope-up. A slow pup is a lazy dog. Therefore—"

Operator's Note: Yeah, and here's one that will simply SLAY you:

When is money damp?

When it's "dew" in the morning and "mist" at night.

Ha-ha-ha!

Carrying out researches a little further, we unearthed a sample of the humor that was to be read in the Antioch News half a century ago:

A policeman, still in uniform, on his way home, stood a moment at the corner of a couple of residence streets, and as he started on a very handsomely dressed little girl came up and paused while a carriage passed. "How d'ye do little girl?" said the officer in a fatherly tone, for he had some little girls of his own.

The little miss looked at him askance.

"Do you want to get across the street?" he said again attributing her silence to the natural shyness of a child.

She merely looked at him and made no reply.

"Come," he said, in his kindest way, "I'm going across and I'll escort you over."

This time she stepped back haughtily.

"Excuse me," she replied. "I can take care of myself. My mamma told me it wasn't proper for a lady to be seen on the street with a gentleman she had not been introduced to."

She skipped across, leaving the officer leaning against the lamp-post trying to get over the shock.

Our private query—How old was the young lady?

From an Antioch News of the early 1900's, we garner this gem:

An old citizen, who had been hen-pecked all his life, was about to die. His wife felt it her duty to offer him such consolation as she might, and said: "John, you are about to go, but I will follow you."

"I suppose so, Manda," said the old man weakly, "but so far as I am concerned, you don't need to be in any blamed hurry about it."

Thieves Take Radio on Second Trip to Cottage

When thieves looted his cottage near Grass Lake the first time, two months ago, Frank Wiedemann of Chicago didn't say much about it, but when they came back again and took a radio and a set of tools valued at $20, he got mad. Wiedemann told Lake county deputy sheriffs Sunday. Entry to the cottage had been gained through a window which was "jimmied."

Light From Glaciers

The electric light in your hotel room at Territet, Switzerland, comes from neighboring glaciers at an altitude of 10,000 feet, necessitating the building of a dam at 7,000 feet, and drops from the mountains through metal conduits nearly 6,000 feet in a single stage, the highest chute in the world.

Threat of Stabbing Is Just Too Much

SEATTLE, WASH.—When Mrs. Shizuko Kadoyama threw pots, pans and even the radio at her husband, Nobuo, it was just "not very comfortable," he testified in court. But when she stood over his bed threatening to stab him with a pocket knife—that was something else again. Judge Allen gave the husband a divorce.

Convict Builds an Organ in Prison

Chaplain Comments on Need; Prisoner Gets Busy.

MICHIGAN CITY, IND.—Because a "stick-up" man loves music, the Indiana state prison is getting an organ.

A prisoner, known to outsiders only as a number, but known to officials and fellow inmates as "Jim," is building an organ in the prison auditorium.

"Jim" is serving a 10-year sentence for armed robbery of a filling station. Before Jim's wife died and he "went off the deep end," he was a bank teller and cost accountant. The prisoner's hobby was playing the violin. He had been taught at one of the nation's foremost music schools.

Twenty-eight months ago, Chaplain Hall commented during services in the prison that the institution needed an organ but added that the state was unable to buy one.

Shortly afterward, Jim volunteered to construct an organ, although never had he had experience in building such an instrument. He wrote to his mother, who forwarded a book on organ building.

Jim found discarded lumber, pipe, wire and other necessary materials about the prison. Lumber was hauled out to form the pipes in the institution's workshops.

Some one "lifted his organ building book," but Jim heard of Dr. William H. Barnes, of Evanston, Ill., organ architect, who wrote an encouraging letter and sent a blower, generator and motor. Later, Dr. Barnes visited the prison to watch the building. The state finally contributed $25 toward purchasing of material.

The organ contains 514 pipes in eight ranks and is of standard two manual size. The only other organ built inside prison walls, at Sing Sing, was destroyed by the inmate who constructed it on the day of his release.

Doctors Are Amazed at Recovery of 'Stone Girl'

TACOMA, WASH.—Nature, aided by medical science, is curing Nona Cloyes, the "stone girl" who attracted national attention a few years ago.

Her body started to turn to stone four years ago, her skin became hard and leathery and was stretched so tightly that she could barely move.

Now she moves freely about her parents' farm in the shadow of majestic Mt. Rainier. She even dreams of romance and marriage.

She has been seen by hundreds of doctors and made a trip to the Mayo clinic at Rochester, Minn.

Today she is under the care of Dr. H. G. Willard of Tacoma, but he refuses to take credit for her great improvement to the point where only a small patch of skin on her back is affected instead of her entire back, chest, arms and thighs as was the case four years ago.

Purse Finder Returns $5 But Keeps Remaining $15

KENT, OHIO.—Virtue may be its own reward, but there's one person here who needed something a little more substantial—and in advance.

Mrs. Robert Blake, of California, visiting here, lost a billfold containing $20, valuable papers and California and Ohio driving licenses. She received a letter from the finder after she had advertised. It contained $5, her papers, driving licenses and a note.

"I have been out of work for some time and spent part of the money, but I am expecting some money soon, and when I get it I will return the rest."

Father Believed Drowned

Comes Home After Year

WILLIMANTIC, CONN.—Nearly a year after his overturned canoe was found in Willimantic river and he was mourned as dead by his wife and four-year-old son, Joseph G. Beaulieu came home.

He explained that after the boat capsized he decided to go to Canada and it was not until recently he heard his family and friends believed him drowned.

"I made a mess out of things by leaving town," he said, "and am back to make amends for the anguish I caused my family and relatives."

Jail Seeker Unlucky

MARTINEZ, CALIF.—Howard Hawthorne, itinerant Negro, wanted to get into jail for awhile. He applied for admission but was told there were no charges against him. So he started in to call the officials names. He was arrested, taken before the judge, sentenced to six months in jail—and the sentence suspended.

Cost Per Mile for Car Driving Below 2 Cents

How much does it cost to drive my car?

That is the question most frequently asked by motorists everywhere, according to Charles M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor club. In reply he outlines below the average cost of car operation, showing each item of expense.

Actual driving cost per mile:

	For Light Cars	Medium weight Cars	Heavy Cars
Gasoline	1.25c	1.54c	1.67c
Oil	.19c	.16c	.22c
Tires	.21c	.31c	.40c
Repairs	.53c	.60c	.65c

2.18c 2.61c 2.94c

"These figures will vary in different sections of the country because the wide range of driving speeds, age of cars, temperatures, and road surfaces," Mr. Hayes explains. "But the average cost runs slightly below 2½ cents per mile for primary expense."

"Because 57 per cent of the nation's business concerns allow their men five cents per mile on car expenses, many motorists believe surplus 2½ cents is allowed in order to take care of insurance and emergencies and to leave the driver with a fraction of a cent profit."
